

Shabbat About Town

This exciting new program connects Judaism to our lives while meeting families where they are! Grandparents, parents, and children are sure to enjoy these four fun and engaging performances that will be followed by a Kiddush led by Rabbi Grossman.

Magic Carpet Ride

Children ages two and older love these global musical adventures! Kids and their parents will be transported through the magic of their imaginations to exotic destinations while exploring the musical traditions, dance, movement, visual art, and indigenous stories of some of the world's most exciting locales.

The talented music/dance troupe Being:Art will lead the sessions with guest artists.
